

Board of Trustees & Others

Board of Trustees meeting held in March 2018 at the University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban Law Clinic.

The Board of Trustees consists of the following members: Prof. Karthigasen Govender (Chairperson – since date of inception), Prof. David McQuoid-Mason (Vice Chairperson – since date of inception), Prof. Yousuf Vawda (Trustee – since date of inception), Prof. Nicolaas Steytler (Trustee – since date of inception), Prof. Jonathan Campbell (Trustee – 15 years), Prof. Jobst Bodenstein (Trustee – 5 years), Ms. Thulisile Mhlungu (Trustee – 14 years), Mr. Shamiel Jassiem (Trustee – 5 years) and Mr. Edward Hanekom (Trustee – 2 years).

Programme Manager & Secretariat

Programme Manager: Schalk Meyer

Administrative Assistant: Lizelle du Pisani

Financial Administrator: Suraija Omarjee

The financial management of the AULAI Trust is done by Nedgroup Trust Ltd. situated in Umhlanga. Contact person: Tammy Govender.

The Programme Manager of the AULAI Trust is responsible for: fundraising from international and national donors, administration of funding to University Law Clinics and Community Advice Offices, reporting, recordkeeping, quality control, governance and compliance. All applications for funding are approved by the Board of Trustees of the AULAI Trust, all payments by the AULAI Trust are authorised by the Programme Manager and at least 2 Trustees, all contracts are signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and the Programme Manager of the AULAI Trust.

Limpopo Access to Justice Cluster

University of Limpopo Law Clinic

Director: Simphiwe Sikhakhane

Project Manager: Chaka Mokhudu

Attorney: Lucky Phaka

The University of Limpopo Law Clinic is responsible, in terms of the cooperation agreement with the AULAI Trust, for the following:

Management of the Limpopo Access to Justice Cluster (LAJC) activities which are, inter alia, on-site visits to community advice offices, back-up legal services to community advice offices, legal services to poor and marginalised members of the community, training to community-based paralegals, training to staff and management committees of community advice offices, outreach programmes, community workshops, collection and submission of reports from community advice offices, receiving and processing of applications for funding to community advice offices and for the quality control of services rendered.

Mpumalanga Access to Justice Cluster

North-West University, Potchefstroom Law Clinic

Director: Chrisna Landsberg

Project Manager: Wilma Kasa

Attorney: Nophasika Mnisi

Paralegal: Maggie Matsane

The North-West University, Potchefstroom Law Clinic is responsible, in terms of the cooperation agreement with the AULAI Trust, for the following:

Management of the Mpumalanga Access to Justice Cluster (MAJC) activities which are, inter alia, on-site visits to community advice offices, back-up legal services to community advice offices, legal services to poor and marginalised members of the community, training to community-based paralegals, training to staff and management committees of community advice offices, outreach programmes, community workshops, collection and submission of reports from community advice offices, receiving and processing of applications for funding to community advice offices and for the quality control of services rendered.

Cape Human Rights Cluster

University of the Western Cape Law Clinic

Director: Shamiel Jassiem

Attorney: Shamiel Naidoo

The University of the Western Cape Law Clinic is responsible, in terms of the cooperation agreement with the AULAI Trust, for the following:

Management of the Cape Human Rights Cluster (CHRC) activities which are, inter alia, on-site visits to community advice offices, back-up legal services to community advice offices, legal services to poor and marginalised members of the community, training to community-based paralegals, training to staff and management committees of community advice offices, outreach programmes, community workshops, collection and submission of reports from community advice offices, receiving and processing of applications for funding to community advice offices and for the quality control of services rendered.

North-West Access to Justice Cluster

North-West University, Potchefstroom Law Clinic

Director: Chrisna Landsberg

Project Manager: Zaida Essop

Attorney: Rose Teffo

Paralegal: Meshack Khali

The North-West University, Potchefstroom Law Clinic is responsible, in terms of the cooperation agreement with the AULAI Trust, for the following:

Management of the North-West Access to Justice Cluster (NAJC) activities which are, inter alia, on-site visits to community advice offices, back-up legal services to community advice offices, legal services to poor and marginalised members of the community, training to community-based paralegals, training to staff and management committees of community advice offices, outreach programmes, community workshops, collection and submission of reports from community advice offices, receiving and processing of applications for funding to community advice offices and for the quality control of services rendered.