

Jobst Bodenstein

Jobst Bodenstein is an Associate Professor Emeritus of Law at the Rhodes University. He holds a Trustee Licentiate Diploma, BA, LLB and LLM Degree. He is an admitted attorney and conveyancer of the High Court of South Africa and has 26 years' experience working at a University Law Clinic. He specialises in Clinical Law and has extensive experience in the management of University Law Clinics as he previously served as the Director of the North-West University, Mafikeng Community Law Centre and the Rhodes University Law Clinic. He has also served on the executive committee of the South African University Law Clinics Association (SAULCA) for 9 years in various portfolios including the President of SAULCA from 2012 to 2015. He is the author of various publications, including 'Voter Education in Rural KwaZulu' (1996) Matlhasedi, 'KwaZulu NGO's and Voter Education' (1996) Matlhasedi, 'Access to Legal Aid in Rural South Africa: in seeking a Coordinated Approach' (2005) Obiter, Drafting of Wills in 'Clinical Law in South Africa' (1st, 2nd and 3rd edition) LexisNexis, and 'The Role of Legal Aid Clinics in the provision of Legal Aid in SA' (2007) Published conference proceedings of the International Legal Aid Group Conference, Antwerp, Belgium.

His involvement in human rights and clinical law organisations, include: AULAI / SAULCA executive; AULAI Trust board member; Street Law; Founding member of Lawyers for Human Rights of Bop.; Steering committee of North West Ant-Racism Conference; NW Access to Justice Cluster; Bop. Legal Aid Board and Law Society and; presently, voluntary advice to various NPOs.

